SID MYERS SHOT IN BOWELS. Former Stanford Man May Be Fatally Wounded at Lagrange, N. C.

Sid J. Myers, who left Stanford about three years ago to become associated with Charley Lutes in the horse and mule business in the south, was shot through the bowels early in the week at his home in LaGrange, North Carolina, and his condition is said to be very precarious. No details about the shooting have been received here. The first telegram which was received simply notified his brother, Mat Myers of the affair and informed him that Mr. Myers' condition was very critical.

Mr. Myers left at once for North Carolina for his brother's bedside, but no word has as yet been received from him. A telegram came from Mr. Lutes Thursday morning that it was thought there was little chance for Mr. Myers' recovery, but another later that afternoon said he was resting much easier.

Friends of Mr. Myers back here "at home" are very apprehensive and anxious. A bullet wound in the bowels is a very serious and generally fatal wound. They are desirous of learning the particulars under which he was wounded. It has only been a few months since Mr. Myers was married to a dear girl in his new home in the south. He has done well in business there and the news of his trouble and serious condition has greatly shocked and grieved his host of friends in Kentucky.

HUSTONVILLE.

Cleve Dunn, of Nashville, Tenn., arrived home Tuesday on a visit to his parents, D. W. Dunn and wife. Mr. Dunn is with the Southern Tent and Awning Co.

J. L. Conway has returned to Philadelphia, Pa., after a visit to his son, Reid Conway, and other relatives.

Our electric light plant is being greatly improved in looks under the new management. Important changes are being made in the operation of same.

Some very necessary improvements have been made in the school building recently and will add greatly to the comfort of the pupils. School will open September 6th. A report has been circulated that school would not open on the 6th, but there is not any truth to this report. It is hoped that all pupils will be at the roll call on Monday morning, Sept. 6th.

Mrs. Bettie Fowler, of Stanford, visited her sister, Mrs. Uriah Dunn Thursday.

Mrs. Dan Taylor, of Stanford, spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Dunn.

Nathan Hicks is threshing his wheat this week.

An automobile party composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Adams, Prof. and Mrs. S. S. Robinson motored to Frankfort and Lexington and returned by the way of Shakertown, Burgin and Danville. They dined at the Capitol Hotel, visited the State Capitol and other points of interest. The party report a fine trip. The clouds with rain shut off the sun and made the drive ideal.

Houstonville Graded School.

The Graded School of Houstonville will re-open on Monday, the 6th of September. Our school has made one important change in the faculty. The Grammar school department which has been so ably taught for the past nine years by Miss Young will be taught by Miss Lillian Mason, of North Middleton, Bourbon county, Ky. Miss Mason is a lady of fine training and experience. We are informed that she is a splendid instructor as well as a master of discipline. With this addition to our faculty of 1914, the teacher will be the same as last year. Miss Kate Boggs is in charge of the Primary Department. Miss Sadie Baughman of the Third and Fourth Grades. Mr. Virgil McMullin, of the Fifth and Sixth Grades. Prof. S. S. Robinson has been re-employed as Principal. The music department will be in charge of Miss Annie Floyd, whose efficient work for the past two years has made her most popular both with pupil and parent.

The personnel of our faculty is strong, and we feel sure that our patrons will do well to continue with us, and thus help us to make the year 1915 the best in our history. Our School Board has been making some much-needed improvement to the building. When the children return on the 6th of September they will hardly recognize the place as the same. All children should enter and enroll on the first day of school.

Co-operation of Board of Education, Faculty and parents makes a good school. Let us have an encouraging opening on Monday, September 6th, 1915.

The Byplay Minstrels.

"Mr. Interlocutor, can you tell me the difference between a palmist and a bartender?"

"No, Mr. Bones, I cannot. Will you elucidate the difference?"

"We go to the palmist when we want our hands read and we go to the bartender when we want our noses red."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mr. Fish is in his 85th year and is as active as a man half his years, riding a saddle horse everywhere he desires to go. Mrs. Fish is 84 and well preserved. A host of friends throughout all this section of the state will extend hearty congratulations and good wishes.

Harry Jacobs Loses His Father.

Daniel Jacobs, of Waynesburg, died Wednesday morning after a long illness of two months. Mr. Jacobs was 68 years of age and was born in Virginia and came to Kentucky from Greenville, Ohio, about twenty-five years ago. He was married twice and two children by his first wife are still living, a daughter in Richmond, Ind., and Harry Jacobs, the monument man of this city. His last wife was Miss Lucy McMullin and to them were born seven children, four boys and three girls, all of whom are living. Mr. Jacobs was a member of the 84th Indiana Volunteer Infantry, served three years in the Civil War. At the time of his death he was a faithful member of the Olive Branch Baptist church and died in the hope of a resurrection at the last day when God shall call forth his sleeping saints from their graves to give them the promised reward for serving him in this life below. He was laid at rest in Olive cemetery.

The appointment comes as a splendid recognition of Mr. Bromley's high position in the insurance world, and is regarded as quite an honor for so young a man.

Russell Bad Men Caught in Illinois.

Dispatches from Paris, Illinois, Sunday told of the capture of three Russell County, Kentucky bad men, there after a long, hard chase. The dispatch said: "Surrounded to a pose after depredations armed with pitchforks, pistols and shotguns, Milton Bradshaw and the Lawless brothers, three men wanted on criminal charges in Russell county, Ky., were arrested here today after eluding arrest for three years. The trio was trailed to a hay loft in the country near here, and fought from behind bales of hay. As the deputies advanced the fugitives dropped down a hay chute and were trapped. Deputy Sheriff J. L. Mann and G. Woolridge, of Jamestown, Ky., arrived in the city and took charge of the men. Several months ago the three men figured it, was charged in a night riding raid in which five of the band were shot, and both of the lawless boys were wounded. The shooting resulted in an attempt to take twenty-three barrels of whisky, it is claimed. Bradshaw had been arrested before, but escaped from the Courthouse during his trial. He also is wanted on a criminal charge of assaulting Nina Tiller, a twelve-year-old girl. Officers say Bradshaw is wanted on a charge of burning the barn of a neighbor, Robert Antle, and that he was trailed to his home by bloodhounds but later escaped. Police found that the Lawless brothers had many small shot in their bodies."

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

Representative T. R. Jones, of Caloway county, wants a constitutional amendment permitting State Superintendents of Public Instruction to be eligible to succeed themselves in office.

The Benz Brothers distillery at Eminence has paid the government $50,000 in whisky which has been "legalized," whatever that means.

Estill Rose was tried before Judge J. S. Yankey at Springfield on charge of stealing the horse and buggy of Creath Dean, who lives in the northern part of Washington county. The evidence was not sufficient to hold Rose on the felony charge, but he was held under $100 bond to answer to the grand jury on a charge of taking the property of another without felonious intent.

BIG STOCK BARN BURNS

Sunday Night Fire Believed to Have Started in Wet Hay

The large stock barn of James M. Gover, about a mile and a half northwest of Stanford off the Danville Pike burned to the ground Sunday night, and mention of the catastrophe was made in the newspaper from Tuesday's issue. Dr. Hugh Reid, who was out on the place adjoining the barn, said the fire started in the hay stored in the big barn on his neighbor's place burst suddenly into flames about eight o'clock. It appears that the fire had been burning inside for some time. When he discovered the conflagration it was too late to save anything. Mr. Gover lost a quantity of hay and feed of all sorts but outside of the building, his most serious loss was a fine three-year-old colt which he valued at $500. A large amount of harness, farming machinery etc., was destroyed. Mr. Gover suspects that the blaze started from internal combustion. He has a quantity of fresh clover hay stored in the barn structure.

A Delightful Affair

The garden party given by Mrs. William H. Shanks on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. E. C. Walton was a most delightful occasion. The day was a perfect one and the garden a lovely setting for such a pleasing company. Miss Susan Fisher Woods in her usual genial manner presided at the punch bowl. The feature of the afternoon was a floral query, the answers to which formed an acrostic—the name of the guest of honor. Mrs. J. B. Paxton was the fortunate contestant, for which she received a basket of beautiful roses. Mrs. Walton was presented with a huge bunch of gladioli. The guests were then served with ices, cakes and bon bons that carried out the green and white color scheme of the occasion.

The out-of-town guests were: Messrs. T. E. Baldwin, Walter Baldwin, Mrs. Lucy Crook, Lucia Burnham, Hume, Bennett and Olivia Baldwin, of Richmond; Mesdames Will R. Cook and J. Fleecy, Robinson, of Lancaster; Mrs. Frank Jennings, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Emma Noe, of Hopkinsville; Mrs. Sanford Allen, of Millersburg; Mrs. G. C. Anderson, of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. L. E. Carpenter, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Homer Carpenter, of Shelbyville; Mrs. Louanna Holdam, of Muskogee, Okla.; Mrs. J. S. Wells, of Danville; Mrs. A. W. Carpenter and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Carpenter, of Moreland and Mrs. James H. Baughman, of "Hilltop."

Mrs. Bruce Entertains Rook Club

Mrs. Robert T. Bruce was hostess to the Rook Club on Thursday morning, and, as usual, entertained in a most delightful manner. The morning was an ideal one for playing and most of the members were present as well as some guests. Mrs. Bruce had as her house guests for the occasion, her sister, Mrs. Mary Deatherage and Miss Deatherage, of Richmond. A delightful and appetizing luncheon was served, consisting of a salad course by their looks. The best judge cannot go into a herd of 20 cows and place them in the order of their profitability. He may place them according to the rules of judgment followed in the show ring, but after placing the milk scales and the Babcock Tester would tell a very different story. Time and again we have seen this tried. The only safe plan is to weigh and test the milk of each cow. Save the good cows and dispose of the poor ones. The best and cheapest way to improve a herd is to breed the cows to pure bred bulls of heavy milking and butter strains and save their heifer calves.

Good scales for weighing milk can be purchased for $100 and fit for farm use costs only $50.00. The testing is very simple and can be done with perfect accuracy by any school boy or girl, or by the farmer himself.

Entertain at Tennis.

George Fleece Farris entertained at Tennis, on the tennis court at the College building on Tuesday. Mr. Farris, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Farris, of this city, proved himself a charming and entertaining host. A number of games were played for those who did not wish to play tennis. After an hour or so of merriment elaborate refreshments were served. Those who had the pleasure of being present were: Mrs. W. A. Tribble, Mrs. T. A. Rice, Mrs. J. S. Rice, Mrs. J. B. Foster, Mrs. James H. Woods, Mrs. C. H. Cook, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. G. B. Martin, Mrs. Lee Elkin, of Louisville, Mrs. C. H. Yars, Mrs. J. C. Osborne, of Knob Creek, Ark., Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, Mrs. S. A. Sandifer, Mrs. G. B. Cooper, Mrs. John Baughman, Mrs. Sam James Harris, Mrs. E. P. Woods, Mrs. T. W. Pennington, Mrs. E. J. Brown, Miss Essie Burch, Miss Mary Burd, Miss Sallie Mills Craig, Miss Mary Allen Deatherage, of Richmond, Miss Levina Harris and Miss Lucile Cooper.

For Course; He Lives in Lincoln

The Junction City correspondent of the Danville Messenger visited a prominent farmer of the West End of Lincoln last week, and wrote the following in his next letter to that good paper: Mrs. D. C. T. Grabs, Mrs. H. L. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Grubbs, Mrs. Wm. McGinn and children, 12 in number, and Mr. D. A. Young, of Lexington, and Miss Sallie Gaddis were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Fox Tuesday, while going over the vineyard there, they ate beans, cucumbers, sugar cane, tomatoes, muskmelons, water melons, melishes and lettuce, besides grapes and peaches were seen in one field, and corn, clover, potatoes, oats and millet, and an abundance of apples, walnuts, hickory nuts and persimmons and chestnuts were also found. Mr. Fox treated the crowd to five of the sweetest, juiciest water melons and all of the largest, mellowest and blushingest Maiden Blush apples they could eat. The spring house was found full of milk and butter that was many Danville people get to eat, and all departed in the late afternoon feeling much better for the hospitality of their hosts and hostess and the outing that these folks had had.

Dixie Book Club Entertained.

One of the pretty entertainments of the week was the party given the Dixie Book Club and some other guests on yesterday afternoon by Miss Lucy Walton at her home on Lancaster street. Miss Walton was assisted in entertaining by her mother Mrs. Walton and aunt, Miss Sallie Cook, of Nashville, Tenn. On arriving the guests were served with delightful frappe. Nine tables of players were present and a most enjoyable afternoon spent. At the conclusion of the game ice and cakes were served.

BEST MILK PRODUCING COW.

Prof. Nicholls' Interesting Observations Upon This Ring At Fair.

W. D. Nicholls, assistant professor of Animal Husbandry at the State Experiment Station at Lexington, who judged the best and highest producing dairy cow ring at the fair the first day, has written an interesting resume of the ring and the tests made for the I. J. Prof. Nicholls makes some valuable observations and suggestions, which ought to interest every cow owner.

Prof. Nicholls says:

Prizes were offered in this ring for the cows giving the largest amount of butter fat. The amount of butter fat produced by a cow is dependent upon two factors, first, the amount of milk and second the richness of the milk, or in other words the percentage of butter fat contained in the milk. In order to get at these factors each cow was milked out in the ring in the presence of the judge and the cows' milk was tested for butter fat by the use of the Babcock Milk Tester. The milk and butter fat production as shown by the tests made by the Kentucky State Experiment Station was as follows:

Note: First prize, 100 lbs. milk; 2nd column, percentage butter fat; 3rd column, lbs. fat in milk.

The democrats of Louisville are fixing to have a nice little scrap tomorrow over the selection of delegates to the state platform convention. It is an entirely local affair and is caused by the bitter enmity of the Times-Courier-Journal crowd to the local city administration. Whenever that bunch can't rule, they want to ruin. Talk of opposition to the Stanley program out in the state is bosh. No democrats of consequence, who supported McChesney or McDermott, have any desire to oppose Mr. Stanley or his friends in any program or platform they may want to put through. He is the party's nominee for governor and should write the platform himself if he wants to. So far as we know, in this country, which McChesney carried by a majority over his Stanley and McDermott, no McChesney man cares a rap whether he is put on the delegation to Louisville or not. There are some Stanley men, however, who are so narrow-minded and selfish, that they are going about the streets objecting to any man who was against Stanley being put on the delegation. Such a spirit and such pig-headedness is all that can keep Stanley from being overwhelmingly elected in November. If he is beaten it will be by such "friends" as these, who seem to take a delight in attempting to humiliate and "rub it in" every chance they get, on democrats who did not support their favorite. Most of us McChesney followers, however, are too good democrats to let such small differences bother us, but there are a lot of mighty good men who are not, and we would suggest to the intense Stanley partisans that they go a "leetle" slow, and not rub salt on old sores.

Even so great and pure a republican as William Howard Taft in an interview at San Francisco this week practically admitted that republican forces of defending Woodrow Wilson next year had gone glimmering since his masterly conduct of this nation's destinies during the troublous war times pervading the world. And yet Mars Henry continues to tear his hair and do everything but actually demand that the country be plunged into the conflict instanter. He seems to lose sight of everything in violent hatred of Germany and its rulers. Fortunately the President is little likely to guide his course by the ravings of the once grand old man, but may be depended upon to steer the American ship of state between the shoals of slaughter and sorrow, if any mortal hand can honorably do so.

Clinton and Russell counties have just voted bonds to build good roads and Adair county is investigating the subject prior to an election. Lincoln county has about 200 miles of pike and 600 miles of dirt roads and there's no gainsaying the fact that they are in miserable condition, due to inadequate means to repair them. Whether the people want to vote bonds or not for road repairs is a question they will settle themselves. They will have their opportunity on Sept. 15th. Good roads are in the air everywhere and Lincoln must not lag behind the procession.

The Owensboro Inquirer runs the name of Sid Douthitt for Lincoln County Commissioner in the list of Democratic candidates. We knew from the returns that Sid was some runt, but we didn't realize that he was so much of a spender that he was "deadening" over into Lawrence Finn's district and going after him too.

A UNIQUE RECORD.

Very Few Like It In Our Broad public.

Grateful testimony for Doan's Kidney Pills, published everywhere is of itself convincing evidence of merit. Confirmed testimony forms still stronger evidence. Years ago, a citizen of this locality gratefully acknowledged the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the proof more convincing. Cases of this kind are plentiful in the work of Doan's Kidney Pills—the record is unique.

John T. Barnett, carpenter, Rowland, Ky., says: "I have used many kidney medicines in the past few years, but Doan's Kidney Pills was the only one that gave me relief. My work calls for heavy lifting and much stooping. This weakened my kidneys and caused attacks of lumbago and a severe ache across the small of my back. I also had other annoyances caused by weak kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills brought prompt relief."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Barnett said: "I have had no return of kidney complaints since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I look upon the benefit as permanent."

OLDEST RED MAN INDORSES TANLAC

Remedy Filled Him With New Energy and Vigor After Many Years.

Louisville, August 26—Among those to endorse Tanlac recently is Fred Meinecke, a retired hardware dealer, of 2522 West Jefferson, street, this city, who found speedy relief from chronic stomach trouble by use of the premier preparation. Mr. Meinecke, who is sixty-eight years old and the oldest member of the Order of Red Men in Kentucky, said:

"I was suffering from stomach trouble for many years. Finally my condition became so serious that I was forced to retire from business. I was unable to retain even the lightest foods on my stomach, and had the most severe pains imaginable in my abdominal regions after eating. I suffered from headaches, nervousness and dizziness, and found it difficult to sleep."

"After being advised by friends to try Tanlac, and seeing it advertised in the newspapers, I decided to try it. I was astonished at the result. After taking a few doses my appetite returned and I found myself well again. I could rest with relief. The nervousness and dizziness disappeared and my sleep became restful and peaceful. I no longer suffer from pains in the abdomen and head."

"I can do as much work now as I ever could and feel as well as I did 20 years ago, before I became affected with stomach trouble."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, is sold in Stanford at Penny's Drug Store.

Boney Adams, a negro, charged with procuring liquor for Jake Robinson, also colored, on the first day of the fair, was acquitted in county court Thursday. He produced two witnesses who swore that he did not get the booze, according to the accusation.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

So let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

In Honor Of Mat.

Mrs. Elvira Miller Slaughter, the popular poetess of Louisville, has composed the following poem in honor of Mat Cohen's victory in the recent primary:

He's our Commissioner, you bet,
The finest we have nailed down yet,
This fact Kentuckians are knowing
And take their hats off to Mat Cohen.

He has a horse upon them all
When bleak November comes this fall,
And while Republicans make breaks
He'll capture Commissioners' stakes.

The Bluegrass folks are awful fluttered

Since Lexington is to be the mustard,
And folks up there, each saint and sinner
For once, ha, ha, have picked the winner.

This type writer is on the bum
Because we've kept it going some,
But whether coming now, or going,
It's sold all the time for Cohen.

None but the brave deserve the Fair,
Or have the knack for getting there,
So here's to you, and all are going
To pin the blue upon Mat Cohen.

Reports received by Dr. S. F. Muselman, State Veterinarian at Frankfort, are to the effect that blackleg among stock is prevalent in Nelson, Shelby, Casey, Woodford and Breckinridge counties. There is also an epidemic of cholera, the disease being prevalent in nearly every county in the State.

H. S. Caywood, of North Middleburg, shipped ten carloads of export cattle from Paris to the New York market and shipped seventeen carloads of heavy cattle from Shelbyville. The cattle in each shipment averaged about 1,450 pounds each, and cost from $8.50 to $9.36 per hundred.

E. L. Lillard, of Versailles sold his farm of 267 1/4 acres near Midway, to the Frankfort and Lexington, to Andrew Hawkins, of Lawrenceburg, for $158.50 an acre. It has an eight room brick residence, also three barns and outbuildings. It is estimated that this farm has under its surface about half a million tons of phosphate.

C. E. Tate and H. J. McRoberts attended the Duroc-Jersey hog sale of J. O. Duncan at Lebanon Tuesday.

Mr. Tate, who is a Duroc-Jersey breeder, says that the sale was quite successful, bidders being there from many points, even as far off as Georgia.

Mr. Tate bought a young boar by the great Superba for which he paid $105, which was paid for a spilt gilt.

James H. Yowell, of Hustonville, sold a dozen head of yearling steers that averaged about 700 pounds to a Mr. Winn, of Woodford county, who was through the West End this week buying livestock.

Mr. Winn bought in all about 100 head of mixed stuff.

He gave Mr. Yowell $25 for a calf and picked up a good deal of stuff in Casey county.

He paid Mr. Yowell seven and a quarter cents a pound for the yearlings.

R. C. Arnold, a local stock dealer, bought up a drove of lambs around here this week at six cents a pound.

He got 14 from Wm. Peppes, and a small number from Phil Murphy.

He bought a 700-pound heifer from J. N. Cash, of Turnerville at six cents a pound; a 600-pound heifer from W. B. Logan at five and a quarter cents;

13 light hogs from Alfred Swope at $7;
